Dear Hiring Manager

My name is João Eurico and I´m applying for a job in the development team of your prestigious company.  Attached is my resume with most of my professional life described in detail.

Please take notice of my extensive knowledge of IT products and services covering from software application, software tools and frameworks like React JS, Vue.JS, Node.JS, JavaScript, HTML, CSS. I would like to emphasize the experience with software development cycle.  I´m fluent in English and I´ve worked with foreign companies in many occasions including the Inter.Net Brazilian operation and The World Bank where I learned to speak "business English".

I´m overly excited with this opportunity and looking forward to having an interview with your hiring team.

Thanks in advance

Best Regards
